

FIND on the Fly

What is FIND?

FIND is the first step on your pathway to industry!

Fellowship Information and Networking Day (FIND) is an event that provides pharmacy candidates the opportunity to learn more about the Rutgers Institute for Pharmaceutical Industry Fellowships (RPIF). The RPIF is a highly competitive, nationally recognized training program designed for individuals pursuing a rewarding and dynamic career path within the pharmaceutical industry.

- When: Friday, November 17th 3:30-8:00pm (Registration begins at 2:30)
- Where: Ernest Mario School of Pharmacy, 160 Frelinghuysen Rd, Piscataway, NJ 08854

What can I expect at FIND?

The event is broken down into three sessions:

A didactic session which features current Rutgers post-doctoral fellows presenting on the RPIF curriculum and spectrum of functional areas and career pathways within the pharmaceutical industry

An informative presentation and Q&A portion focused on the interview process and preparation for the ASHP Clinical Midyear Meeting 2017. This portion includes watching a video required to participate in the interview process at the Midyear.

A networking session during which candidates can interact with current fellows and visit booths staffed by stakeholders from the top tier US and global pharmaceutical and biopharmaceutical companies

How can I prepare for FIND?

Visit www.pharmafellows.rutgers.edu to learn more about the RPIF program and check out our resources:
